16TH EPISCOPAL DISTRICT OF
THE PENTECOSTAL ASSEMBLIES
OF THE WORLD, INC.

Bishop Noel Jones

Praise the Lord and Greetings in the Most Holy Name of the Lord Jesus Christ!

After two years of connecting online, it is with great joy that I meet you in person and welcome you to the 23rd Tri-Annual Northern California District Council of the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, Inc. We appreciate our South Bay Region's Leadership Team – Suffragan Bishop Billie Wydermyer, District Elder Harold Gulley, Pastors and Saints of God, along with our Programming and Cite Coordinating Teams, all under the fine leadership of our Interim Chairman, Suffragan Bishop Bryan Harris.

We are indeed thankful for the graciousness of our hosts, Bishop Oscar and Lady Janice Dace and the Saints of Bible Way Christian Center.

The corona virus pandemic has compelled all of us to face some jarring realities; however, one of the benefits of experiencing such a seismic shift in our world is the period of introspection which occurs. While we realize that the landscape of our gathering has drastically changed, we must aggressively prepare to continue meeting people where they are and leading them to who and where Christ wants them to be in this current decade and beyond. The world is ever changing, but Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever (Hebrews 13.8).

It is essential for us to continue our vigilance with safety protocol – being vaccinated and boosted, wearing masks, sanitizing our hands and maintaining safe distance. It is imperative that we fortify ourselves during this season. If we were vulnerable before the pandemic, we must now fortify ourselves spiritually, physically, emotionally, and financially. Spiritual fortification is the bedrock of our stability and requires us to strengthen ourselves in the Lord and in the power of His might. We must put on the whole armour of God that we may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil (Ephesians 6.10-11). As our souls prosper, we may look forward to prospering in health and wealth. But, if not - and every Child of God needs an "if not" clause as part of our armour - if our health does not improve, if our finances do not increase, if my situation does not turn out the way I have requested of God, I will yet praise HIM because I AM FORTIFIED!!

Although we grieve the loss of our dear brothers and sister who have transitioned since our last gathering, let us join our voices and offer glorious praise to God for their lives and because God is worthy!!

Fortified,

Bishop Noel Jones

Bishop Brandon A. Jacobs, Sr.

Bishop Brandon A. Jacobs, Sr. Bishop Brandon A. Jacobs, Sr. is the Founder and Pastor of New Zion Temple Church organized December 14, 2006. Bishop Jacobs was called into the gospel ministry at the age of 9 and began preaching at age 13. He received his license at the Mount Hermon Missionary Baptist Church, East Chicago, IN under the leadership of Reverend Andre McGhee. In June 2003, he received his ordination at New Jerusalem Temple of the Living God, Marlton, New Jersey under the leadership of Reverend Sharon R. Robinson, where he served as Youth Pastor from 2000-2004. Bishop Jacobs served as Interim Pastor and Associate Minister of Mount Hermon Baptist Church, East Chicago, IN, from 2005-2006.

New Zion Temple Church is an affiliate of Pilgrim Assemblies International, Inc., which is headquartered in New York, under the leadership of Presiding Archbishop William Hudson III. On July 8, 2016, Bishop Jacobs was one of the last two Bishops consecrated under the leadership of the late Archbishop Roy E. Brown.

In 2017, the Lord led Bishop Jacobs to add a second New Zion Temple Church location in Indianapolis, IN, which launched May 20, 2017. In addition to Pastoring one church in two locations, Bishop Jacobs has provided oversight to the following services throughout the community: Counseling, Youth Advocacy, and Senior Support Group. Bishop Jacobs served two terms as President of the Hammond Ministerial Alliance, which consists of numerous churches in the Hammond community.

As a member of the Northwest Indiana Black Expo Youth Division, he was instrumental in awarding $15,000 in scholarships to youth in East Chicago, Hammond, and Gary, Indiana. Bishop Jacobs worked as a Recidivism Director and Counselor of Tri-City Alternative Action Program (TCAAP). He provided Life Skills Training curriculum to troubled teens, counseling sessions, and implemented creative guidelines to prevent the behavior of repeat “offenders.” Through God’s inspiration, Bishop Jacobs has written and published his first book, “All Eyes On Me,” Lifestyle of the Young and Saved. It is his desire that this book provides a guiding light for the many challenges our youth face in society today. Bishop Jacobs is married to the beautiful and anointed Lady Vivian Jacobs. They are the proud parents of five children. Lady Vivian Jacobs diligently serves alongside her husband and impels the vision he has for New Zion Temple. Bishop Jacobs believes his strong relationship with God sustains him and gives him the strength to better serve not only his congregation, but also the community at large.
